Building and Ground Use Policy

Scheduled Space

- ❖ The identified contact person in the rental agreement is responsible for the conduct of the group and their visitors in accordance with this Building and Ground Use Policy. For supervision purposes, an adult leader must be present prior to and during the time when children/minors will occupy the space that has been approved for use. Lack of adequate adult supervision may result in denial of future rentals.
- ❖ The contact person should familiarize themselves with the emergency exits. Outside doors may not be propped open or blocked due to security and fire codes.
- ❖ Only the room(s) and equipment specified on the rental agreement may be used. It is the group's responsibility to see that the room(s) or area that has been used is left in the same condition it was found. Trash should be put in appropriate containers and lights turned off. If extra clean-up is required by our custodial staff after the event, additional fees will be charged to the renting party.
- ❖ All furniture and equipment must stay on the church premises.
- ❖ Groups are not permitted to affix anything to walls or windows without prior written permission.
- ❖ Time of occupancy and complete cleanup must be finished by the end of the usage time as stated in the rental agreement.
- ❖ There may be several groups using the facilities simultaneously. Your cooperation and courtesy is expected. All persons are expected to use appropriate language and behavior throughout the church and grounds.
- ❖ Groups using the church will not be allowed to store materials or equipment at DUMC.
- ❖ Candles are not allowed in our facility without prior written permission.

Food and Beverages

- ❖ Food and beverages are only allowed in the kitchen and fellowship hall. (Exceptions may be allowed if prior permission is received from DUMC staff.

Tobacco, Alcohol, Firearms

- ❖ The use of alcohol, tobacco, illegal drugs and controlled substances is prohibited in the building and on the grounds of DUMC.
- ❖ No firearms or other hazardous weapons shall be brought on church property for any reason other than by an authorized safety officer.

Deposits & Fees

- ❖ Final payment must be made to DUMC no later than ten days prior to the scheduled event.
- ❖ DUMC may require advance payment of a damage deposit in addition to the room deposit. This deposit will be returned after inspection by church personnel. Damage observed, or costs incurred from failure to abide by the above rules, may result in loss of damage deposit. Damage deposit refund may take up to two weeks to return.

- ❖ DUMC reserves the right to assess a garbage disposal fee.
- ❖ If event is held during the winter, DUMC reserves the right to assess a snow removal fee, if event is held on days normally not plowed for church usage.
- ❖ Total Fees – The total fee charges will be the sum of facility, personnel, equipment fees, and any other costs associated with the use of the facilities or grounds.

Disclaimers

- ❖ The individuals/groups agree to assume all responsibility for damage or liability of any kind and further agrees to hold the church harmless from any liability and/or expense in connection with the use of the church under this agreement. DUMC requires that the renting individuals/groups sign a “Church Usage and Hold Harmless Agreement.”
- ❖ Insurance – It is understood that facility user groups will be liable for insurance on the facility, participants and members of their staff. Additionally, some groups may be required to provide an insurance binder prior to use of the building based on group size, activities involved and/or frequency of events.
- ❖ Individuals/groups may not sublet or transfer their rights or privileges to any other individual, group or organization.
- ❖ DUMC is not responsible for loss of personal items.
- ❖ Any individual/group whose mission or purpose conflicts with the vision of DUMC may be denied space.
- ❖ To meet ministry needs (i.e. funeral, emergency), DUMC reserves the right to change room(s) to a comparable space or cancel the rental agreement, if necessary. Should a ministry need arise, DUMC will contact the renter as soon as possible to reach an agreeable arrangement.

Use of Delano United Methodist Church facility will be cancelled if any of this policy is violated and deposit funds will be retained by DUMC.
